An angel is a supernatural being in various religions.The theological study of angels is known as angelology.. Abrahamic religions often depict them as benevolent celestial intermediaries between God (or Heaven) and humanity. Other roles include protectors and guides for humans, and servants of God. Abrahamic religions describe angelic hierarchies, which vary by sect and religion.

SYNOPSIS. Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology seems to appeal to just about everyone. After reading The Cost of Discipleship, I was excited by Bonhoeffer, but my zeal for him waned after reading Letters and Papers from Prison. I discovered later that Bonhoeffer's theology was different from my evangelical views.

God loves us even when we are sinners. Only when we know the depth of our sin do we know the depth of God’s mercy. We are not as good as we thought, but we are much more loved than we ever imagined. —Excerpted from Discovering Your Dream by Gerald M. Fagin, SJ. Look toward the day to come. We need to act wisely, as God would have us act.
