The Lovely Bones meets Thirteen Reasons Why in this gorgeous, haunting, and tragic novel that examines the crippling--and far-reaching--effects of one person's trauma on her family, her community, and herself. For the past eight years, sixteen-year-old Emilia DeJesus has done her best to move on from the traumatic attack she suffered in the woods behind her elementary school. She's forced down the memories--the feeling of the twigs cracking beneath her, choking on her own blood, unable to scream. Most of all, she's tried to forget about Jeremy Lance, the boy responsible, the boy who caused her such pain. Emilia believes that the crows who watched over her that day, who helped her survive, are still on her side, encouraging her to live fully. And with the love and support of her mother, brother, and her caring boyfriend, Emilia is doing just that. But when a startling discovery about her attacker's identity comes to light, and the memories of that day break through the mental box in which she'd shut them away, Emilia is forced to confront her new reality and make sense of shifting truths about her past, her family, and herself. A compulsively-readable tragedy that reminds us of the fragility of human nature. Praise for The Fall of Innocence * "Sanchez deftly shows the long-lasting impact of the assault. . . . An intimate and tragic look at how traumatic incidents affect individuals, their families, and others around them." --Kirkus Reviews, STARRED REVIEW * "Sanchez writes with stunning detail, showcasing the beauty that can be found in small moments, in family interactions, in nature, and in seemingly everyday objects. . . and illustrates how a trauma like Emilia's has widespread effects." --School Library Journal, STARRED REVIEW "Emilia's inner world both captivates and devastates." --Publishers Weekly "Internal and contemplative, [this novel's] haunting quality lingers." --Booklist

Peanut Butter Vol. 5

There's nothing quite like a relationship with an aged pet—a dog or cat who has been at our side for years, forming an ineffable bond. Pampered pets, however, are a rarity among animals who have been domesticated. Farm animals, for example, are usually slaughtered before their first birthday. We never stop to think about it, but the typical images we see of cows, chickens, pigs, and the like are of young animals. What would we see if they were allowed to grow old? Isa Leshko shows us, brilliantly, with this collection of portraits. To create these portraits, she spent hours with her subjects, gaining their trust and putting them at ease. The resulting images reveal the unique personality of each animal. It's impossible to look away from the animals in these images as they unforgettably meet our gaze, simultaneously calm and challenging. In these photographs we see the cumulative effects of the hardships of industrialized farm life, but also the healing that time can bring, and the dignity that can emerge when farm animals are allowed to age on their own terms. Each portrait is accompanied by a brief biographical note about its subject, and the book is rounded out with essays that explore the history of animal photography, the place of beauty in activist art, and much more. Open this book to any page. Meet Teresa, a thirteen-year-old Yorkshire Pig, or Melvin, an eleven-year-old Angora Goat, or Tom, a seven-year-old Broad Breasted White Turkey. You'll never forget them.

Long Description: As the newest student of White Reef High, Leslie's in for many big surprises. First, there's Ms. Hawke, who takes a very hands-on approach to physical education. Then there's half the student body, who are more bubbly, pretty and confident than Leslie could ever hope to be. And then there's the other half. These girls are something else. Tall, athletic, sexually charged, and all packing serious heat between their legs. Life was hard enough in her old school, but Leslie's about to find out she isn't just the new kid. She's fresh meat. FUTANARI Sex ED is over 10,000 words of sex-filled fun between well-hung futanaris and eager females, and has a HFN ending. ~~~~~ Excerpt ~~~~~ Z ara held her hands to her hips, jutting one out to the side. "You can look, you know." She swept her hand in a downwards motion, as if presenting herself for an audience. "It likes the attention." Her smile was infectious, and Leslie found her lips twitch into a shy grin herself. And since she had permission, she let herself take a peek. She definitely liked what she saw. God, what a cock! And to her surprise, it had freckles, just like the rest of Zara. Those little dots made her enticing penis cute and sexy at the same time. Ms. Hawke instructed the class to stand on their mats. "Let's start with the absolute basics. First, all the futas need to get hard." The teacher began her 'demonstration.' running her closed fist up and down the length of her cock until it filled with blood and stood out straight from her body. The tip was a bright red, and a long blue vein snaked down the length of her shaft. The lights from overhead caught against a speck of pre-cum on the dick's tip, making it glimmer. Leslie was enraptured, her heart racing as she watched her PE teacher rub her enormous dick in front of everyone. She hoped nobody noticed her going red again. It went without saying that things here were very different from her old school! ... " All right, everyone; clothes off!" Leslie felt dizzy as she watched every last person in the class, including Ms. Hawke herself, undress and throw their clothes in a pile in the corner of their mats. In a few blinks, Leslie was standing in front of a class of naked young women - and she was the only one with her clothes still on. Some of the taller girls, the ones who were now very obviously futanari, held hands with their partners, and some of were even kissing. Others simply stood around with their arms crossed, looking like they would rather be paired with anyone but their assigned partner. "Look, I know you're new here, but you're really going to have to start following my instructions the first time I give them, Hall." Ms. Hawke was looking at her seriously. "It wouldn't be fair if I gave you special treatment; I expect all of my students to listen to what I say and follow me without question. So take your clothes off and be ready to help me demonstrate for the class." "Demonstrate?!" Leslie couldn't believe what she heard. "You're going to...we're going to..." Ms. Hawke pulled off the elastic in her hair and shook her hair out, the mousy blonde locks whipping from side to side. When her hair was free, she blew a few strands from face and replied: "Of course. I'm not going to let my students to fuck each other before showing them how to first." ~~~~~ PG Excerpt ~~~~~ "Now," the teacher continued. "It isn't enough that I stand here and lecture you, much as I enjoy hearing the sound of my own voice." Every girl rolled her eyes. "But since everyone here is eighteen, I thought we would make things a little more, well, practical today." This got their attention. Girls immediately began chattering, their faces beaming with excitement. "Here is the list of pairs I've put together myself. All those whose partners are absent will be assigned together, or will join me up the front." A titter rose. The teacher flipped a page on her clipboard and cleared her throat. "Stanley and LeHorn. Nichols and Prabhu. Chang and Finn." This went on, with girls partnering up as their names were read out. Some looked less than enthused about their pairing, but others came together with giggles and coy smiles. One girl demanded that she be paired with her best friend, and the teacher barked so loud that Leslie nearly jumped out of her skin. Once they were all paired off, something became uncomfortably clear to Leslie. Her name hadn't been called out. "Um, m-miss?" she said, raising her hand weakly and trying to get the teacher's attention over the noise. "M-miss? I didn't... I mean I'm new, and I don't...I didn't..." The teacher took one glance at her, and then exhaled through her. "Sorry, they told me I'd have a new kid today. Totally skipped my mind." She flipped over the page. "Name?" "L-Leslie Hall," she stammered. "Leslie...Hall..." she repeated quietly, writing it down. She then placed the pencil in her breast pocket and removed her sunglasses. Her eyes were a beautiful ocean green, and they crinkled at the corners as she smiled. In an instant, this teacher was friendly and had none of the hardness she had shown before. "Nice to meet you, Leslie. I'm Ms. Hawke." She held out her hand. Leslie smiled back and shook her hand, albeit a little tentatively. "Nice to meet you too, Ms. Hawke." The teacher looked out at the crowd. "Well, looks like everyone has their partner today. You'll have to be mine. Hope that's alright with you?" "Mm-hmm. I mean, yes, that's fine, Ms. Hawke." The teacher chuckled, throwing her a mischievous look. "Relax, kid. You've picked a great day for your first PE lesson."

Lost Girls

Written in the 1840s and published here for the first time, Julia Ward Howe's novel about a hermaphrodite is unlike anything of its time--or, in truth, of our own. Narrated by Laurence, who is raised and lives as a man, is loved by men and women alike, and can respond to neither, this unconventional story explores the understanding "that fervent hearts must borrow the disguise of art, if they would win the right to express, in any outward form, the internal fire that consumes them." Laurence describes his repudiation by his family, his involvement with an attractive widow, his subsequent wanderings and eventual attachment to a sixteen-year-old boy, his own tutelage by a Roman nobleman and his sisters, and his ultimate reunion with his early love. His is a story unique in nineteenth-century American letters, at once a remarkable reflection of a largely hidden inner life and a richly imagined tale of coming of age at odds with one's culture. Howe wrote "The Hermaphrodite" when her own marriage was challenged by her husband's affection for another man--and when prevailing notions regarding a woman's appropriate role in patriarchal structures threatened Howe's intellectual and emotional survival. The novel allowed Howe, and will now allow her readers, to occupy a speculative realm otherwise inaccessible in her historical moment.
