My Favorite Aunt Gave Me This Book

A passionate retelling of the Daniel Bell incident, in which a black man was shot and killed while running from police officers. "The Daniel Bell incident twice was a major story in Milwaukee. In 1958, the 22-year-old black man was shot and killed while running from a pair of uniformed Milwaukee policemen. In the late 1970s, one of the former police officers came forward and admitted the shooting incident was not self-defense and that there was a cover-up that spread from the Milwaukee Police Department to the office of the district attorney. That disclosure launched a criminal trial and subsequent civil suit by the family of the slain man. The Bell incident forms the basis of a compelling and, for the most part, engrossing play, AN AMERICAN JOURNEY." Rugg, Variety "Kermit Frazier's and John Leicht's AN AMERICAN JOURNEY is a piece of fine playwriting the play is an effective and moving piece of drama." -Jay Joslyn, Milwaukee Sentinel ..". authors Kermit Frazier and John Leicht [bring] forth a model of clarity and condensation that is all the more notable for its power to move us." -Nels Nelson, Philadelphia Daily News "AN AMERICAN JOURNEY, a provocative play that rings with awareness of American life as people are actually living it today." -William B Collins, The Philadelphia Inquirer "The play creates a haunting portrait of a transient country in which many characters, both black and white, seem unable to settle down in one place." -Bruce Murphy, Milwaukee "Playwrights Kermit Frazier (who is black) and John Leicht (who is white) have succeed in fashioning a powerhouse play that is ingenious in structure (moving through time with cinematic grace), passionate in content " -Charles Lee, W F L N

Remember the old Sporting News Baseball Guide? Historically, the primary purpose of annual baseball guide(s) was the publication of the official league standings plus the official team and individual statistics for both Major League Baseball and Minor League Baseball. The Emerald Guide follows faithfully in that tradition, containing the official batting, pitching, and fielding statistics for every team and every player in Major Leagues Baseball plus extensive lists of league leaders. The Emerald Guide to Baseball fills the gap in the historical record created by the demise of The Sporting News Baseball Guide. First published in 1942, The Sporting News Guide was truly the annual book of record for our National Pastime. The 2015 edition of the Emerald Guide runs more than 600 pages and covers the 2014 season; it also includes a 2015 directory of every franchise, rosters, minor league affiliates, and career leaders for all teams. Plus a Huge 2014 Year-in-Review Section with Comprehensive Essay Covering MLB, On and Off the Field Expanded Standings Head-to-Head Won-Lost Records Head-to-Head Runs Scored & Allowed by Opponent Exhaustive Team & Individual Batting, Pitching, and Fielding Statistics Expanded Leader Boards Day-by-Day Game Logs for all 30 Clubs Great Hitting and Pitching Performances MLB, NL, and AL Records Set or Tied Individual Career Milestones Box Scores for Every Postseason Game Postseason Batter & Pitcher Registers World Series and All-Star Game Box Scores Detailed Biographical Information for Debut Players Complete First-Year Player Draft Coverage Umpire Register Complete Major League Necrology with Epitaphs Comprehensive Minor League Necrology"
