Perfect for use in teacher preparation courses and professional learning groups, this book shows what critical pedagogy looks like and identifies the conditions needed for it to emerge in the K–12 classroom. Focusing on and documenting their experiences with one of their most disenfranchised students, six teachers analyze and rethink what they do in the classroom and why they do it. In so doing, each comes to re-imagine who they are as teachers and as individuals. This engaging collection illuminates writing as a powerful tool for thinking deeply about how and why teachers respond to students in particular ways. Book Features: Prompts and suggested writing exercises at the end of each chapter to support teacher-writer groups. Guiding questions at the end of each chapter to support the instructional practices of K-12 teachers. Helpful appendices, including books for further reading and an essay about the Oral Inquiry Process by Bob Fecho. “This is an important book for all teachers to read—beginners and experienced, as it confronts all of us as teachers to pay attention to the social and political contexts within which we work and consider what we often ignore—our student’s lives outside of school.” —From the Foreword by Ann Lieberman, Senior Scholar at Stanford University “Kudos to Stephanie Jones and her colleagues for making moral sense of the day-to-day craft of education.” —Carl Glickman, educator and author of The Trembling Field: Stories of Wonder, Possibilities, and Downright Crazy Stephanie Jones is associate professor in the

Leaders Who Last

In this stimulating how-to book, a scientist Dr. Dan Swan (D.Engr.) provides an answer to one of life's most important questions, "How in the world does one find miracles?" When a miracle occurred in his life in 1994 at a time when he desperately needed it. This miracle caused a series of revelations that ultimately led him down a spiritual path, completely changing his busy life, his scientific mindset and the way he viewed this chaotic world. Taking the reader on a fascinating tour of his real-life experience, Dr. Swan explains how he began his spiritual journey by learning hands-on energy healing in order to help save his father who had suffered a major stroke. Through his real-life experience as an energy healer, using the healing power from God, he found that miracles happened to patients who were ordinary people like you and him. He witnessed that miracles do happen many times to people who are in desperate need. From his experience, he shows in this book that anyone can become an energy healer and be able to heal loved ones and family members. People of all religious faiths as well as non-believers can transform their physical bodies to Light bodies using the healing power from God. In fact, all major religions including Christianity, Hinduism, and Buddhism, encourage people to make the higher transformation to a union with God or Universal Consciousness. And, he shows the reader step-by-step of how to do it. Using Dr. Swan's method, the spiritual journey can be completed in a short period of time. He successfully merges new scientific findings with ancient wisdom, resulting in an easy-to-understand guide for someone at any spiritual level. Readers will learn from leading quantum physicists and medical doctors, as well as spiritual teachers from around the world. Dr. Swan's instructions set the stage for a spiritual voyage of self-discovery. The third novel in this series. Sadly, Tom Swift has given up on the governments of the world. After fifty years of trying to help mankind and being instrumental in setting up colonies on Venus, Mars, and numerous moons throughout the outer solar system, he and ten thousand colonist, family and former employees have left the home system forever. Their destination has been to explore the Pleiades star constellation with hopes of locating a new, human-friendly home planet. Along with them are the remnants of the dinosaur race he once thought of as his "space friends." The uneasy peace between them is softened by the fact their Prime Leader is a human. The only problem is that his bride, Phyllis Newton, is the human who has become the Prime Leader of the dinosaurs. She and their asteroid ship start out for the same place as Tom and his more conventional ship, but they soon are separated by millions of light years, and even by the sum total of time itself. ## Walden

Pocket Change is a book of wisdom accumulated through life's challenges to make you think. The choices we make are not only crucial to our lives, but to others as well. For this reason alone, we should be considerate of each other. We many times question our existence because of the strenuous task we encounter. One thing to remember is every problem has a solution. We must always search ourselves for error, that we may keep an open mind to the truth. This is the responsibility of life. As one needs pocket change for a parking meter or a telephone call, wisdom is needed as well as knowledge.

Personal Best

"Merging real stories with theory, research, and practice, a prominent scholar offers a new approach to teaching and learning for every stakeholder in urban education. Drawing on his own experience of feeling undervalued and invisible in science classrooms as a young man of color, Christopher Emdin offers a new lens on and approach to teaching in urban schools. Putting forth his theory of Reality Pedagogy, Emdin provides practical tools to unleash the brilliance and eagerness of youth and educators alike--both of whom have been typecast and stymied by outdated modes of thinking about urban education. With this fresh and engaging new pedagogical vision, Emdin demonstrates the importance of creating a family structure and building communities within the classroom, using culturally relevant strategies like hip-hop music and call-and-response, and connecting the experiences of urban youth to indigenous populations globally"--

The Leader in Me

Readers will feel they know someone just like the characters in this timely novel on social status and social media. Steen Sand, CEO of Stensure Networks, is the head honcho at an IT firm that's developed an Internet service to monitor, compute, and publish people's social status. His chief operating officer, Irene Lund, serves as his muse. He needs her to be part of his world, or he can't achieve anything of significance. But does she feel the same? Chief financial officer, Michael Jensen, is a hard-core pessimist who has learned the hard way not to speak up against the status quo, in spite of his natural inclination to do so. Jensen's a numbers guy. He relates to spreadsheets better than he does to people. Will this cost him in the end? Louise Hald, chief marketing officer, joined Stensure's management team after leaving her post as an assistant professor at a business school. She's beginning to wonder if she'll ever move past the "assistant" part in the eyes of her coworkers. What can she do to ensure she gets ahead? And then there's Sophie Bech. She's made the long trip back to Denmark from South Africa for her own private reasons, and everything looks different to her now. She wonders what her return will hold for her. Was it a mistake? Will her fresh set of eyes-and values-help or hinder the team? Reductionism-understanding complex things by reducing them to fundamental parts and interactions-comes up against social status, so subtle, intricate, and sought-after, in this intriguing modern-day novel. Will these characters-and their supporting players-make the changes they need to survive in today's world? Or will they succumb to the allure of using easy but underhanded methods to get ahead?

Learning Curve

The life he knew the day before was long gone Who will protect his mother now? The future of our civilization has always been in the hands of our children. What you may not know is that many years ago, a few of our young ones fought a quest against evil-an evil unlike anything anyone has ever seen under this sun. They didn't know it, but their sacrifices allowed our forefathers-and us-to maintain our fragile ownership of this world. In Seven & Two, the first book of the Our Young Guardians series, we begin the chronicle of one who was brave enough to leave behind what he knew. His faded handwriting not only captures how they struggled through that war, but how they learned to find themselves as they grew up away from their families. You and I owe them more than we could ever give. And even though there is no word of them ever asking for anything, my heart tells me they would only ask for one thing-to keep them where their friends are. The least we can do for them is honor their story.

The Completion Course

The Extraordinary Life of the Master Beinsa Douno

"Now You Can Unlock & Unleash Everything That Is Holding You Back And Keeping You From Moving Forward. Giving You "Clean Slate" To Obtain, Health, Wealth And Most Importantly Peace of Mind! Let me introduce myself. My name is Dr. Mark Tong and I am a Spiritual Healer and Teacher that has developed a "Process" to identify the "Life Lessons" each individual is dealing with. Let's face it, we are all here learning and dealing with Spiritual lessons. The challenge with these lessons is having the awareness and knowing what these lessons are and what is needed to complete the lesson(s). As you know, by looking back at your own life, these "lessons" continue to repeat and seem to get harder and harder until we learn what we need to learn from them. You find them in your struggles with relationships, abundance, physical conditions and other various aspects of your life. BUT NOW YOU CAN DO SOMETHING Seeing and understanding your own "Life Lessons" is difficult, and it can be challenging to identify and understand, let alone learn from them. HERE'S WHERE I COME IN I have developed a special online audio and video program, where you will hear all about "Life Lessons" and how to identify, and more importantly, learn from the lessons so they will never repeat. AND IF THAT'S NOT ENOUGH As part of the program you will receive an "Emotional Inventory Worksheet" along with the "Answer Key" that will lead you through your life events and associate each event with specific "Life Lessons" for that event. Not only is this a valuable resource for your Spiritual growth, but you will learn how to begin helping others with their own "Life Lessons" (priceless). This online program will help you identify: Your remaining "Life Lessons" Who is involved How many times it's repeated The Spiritual concepts tied to the "lessons" Plus: You will receive the tools to begin to "walk through" those "lessons."

The Shift

Conservative evangelical women are least likely to be trained in the areas of teaching and preaching. It's a tragic state of affairs, given the central value that our tradition places on the Scriptures. In this book, Jackie Roesse examines the forces, both past and present, that have discouraged women from becoming trained. We'll discover that women are indeed called, gifted, and mandated in Scripture to herald the Word of God. The first half of the book will focus on encouraging women to become as fully equipped as our male counterparts, and to use their uniquely female voice in proclaiming truth to other women in various settings outside pulpit preaching. But encouragement isn't enough. Many women who already teach Bible studies, or who desire to teach, are in no position to pursue formal studies in a seminary. To that end, the second half of She Can Teach is dedicated to developing homiletic skills. Together we will learn how to study a passage, find the main idea, and build and deliver a biblical message. By the end of this book, the reader will be better equipped to proclaim truth, through her uniquely female voice, to her female audience.

The Healing Power from God

I waited until the last two years of high school to take Spanish and am now one of only three seniors; Sam and Rob are the others. Every day we have to conjugate verbs and today, the teacher was in a rare mood. Amar: to love That's what I associated with Rob Holland, the newest student at Naylorville High who somehow has the power to make me blush, stammer and trip all at once. Molestar: to annoy That should be Sam Seeley's middle name. Since seventh grade he has annoyed me to the point where I should earn a gold medal for ignoring him. Matar: to kill This is what I want to do to the person putting black origami roses in my locker, writing hateful notes, rude emails and texts and throwing a rock at my bedroom window. Nadar: to swim My one talent. A college scholarship I desperately need. Something I never thought I wouldn't be able to do until an "accident" cuts my swim season short. Aprender: to learn I have a lot to learn. About Rob and how emotionally stunted a person can be. About Sam and how his life isn't better than anyone else's. About how one friend's mental illness can have lasting effects. About love. About myself Lane Meyers.

If the Christian life is like a race, we must admit that too many Christian leaders stumble, burn out, or veer off the track. Clearly it is not automatic that a leader will finish well. Based on Dave Kraft's thirty-five years of leading, teaching leadership, and coaching dozens of Christian leaders, Leaders Who Last moves through three stages of leadership: foundations, formation, and fruitfulness. Concise, anecdotal, and packed with wisdom, this book will help you aim your ambitions, refine your character, and position yourself to be an effective leader who endures.
